It is worth searching for any theology title since our e-book collection is being added to regularly.

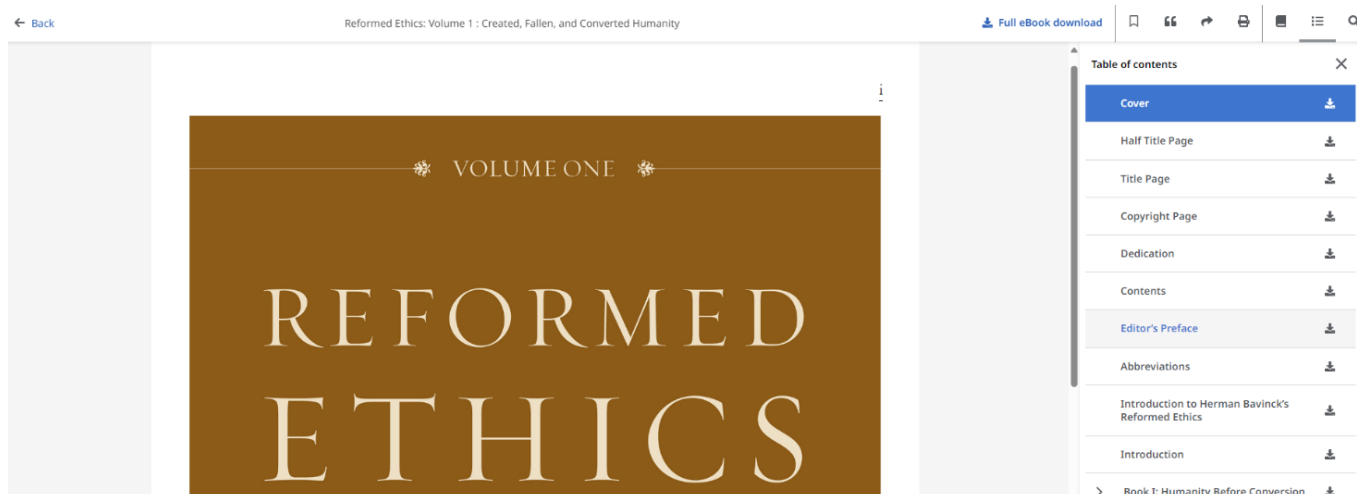

E-books are hyperlinked in the VLE. To access these make sure you are logged into Atla in another tab then click the hyperlinked 'E-book' at the end of the citation to open the e-book record.

The screenshot shows a VLE interface with a sidebar on the left containing 'PTF223 - Summer 24', 'Announcements', 'Module Announcements', 'General Discussion', and 'Essay 1'. The main content area displays 'Cerego Study Sets' and 'General ebook resources from the Gamble Library'. A list of resources is shown, including 'Bavinck, H. (2019) Reformed Ethics. Volume One: Created, Fallen, and Converted humanity'. The 'Ebook' link at the end of this citation is highlighted with a red box.

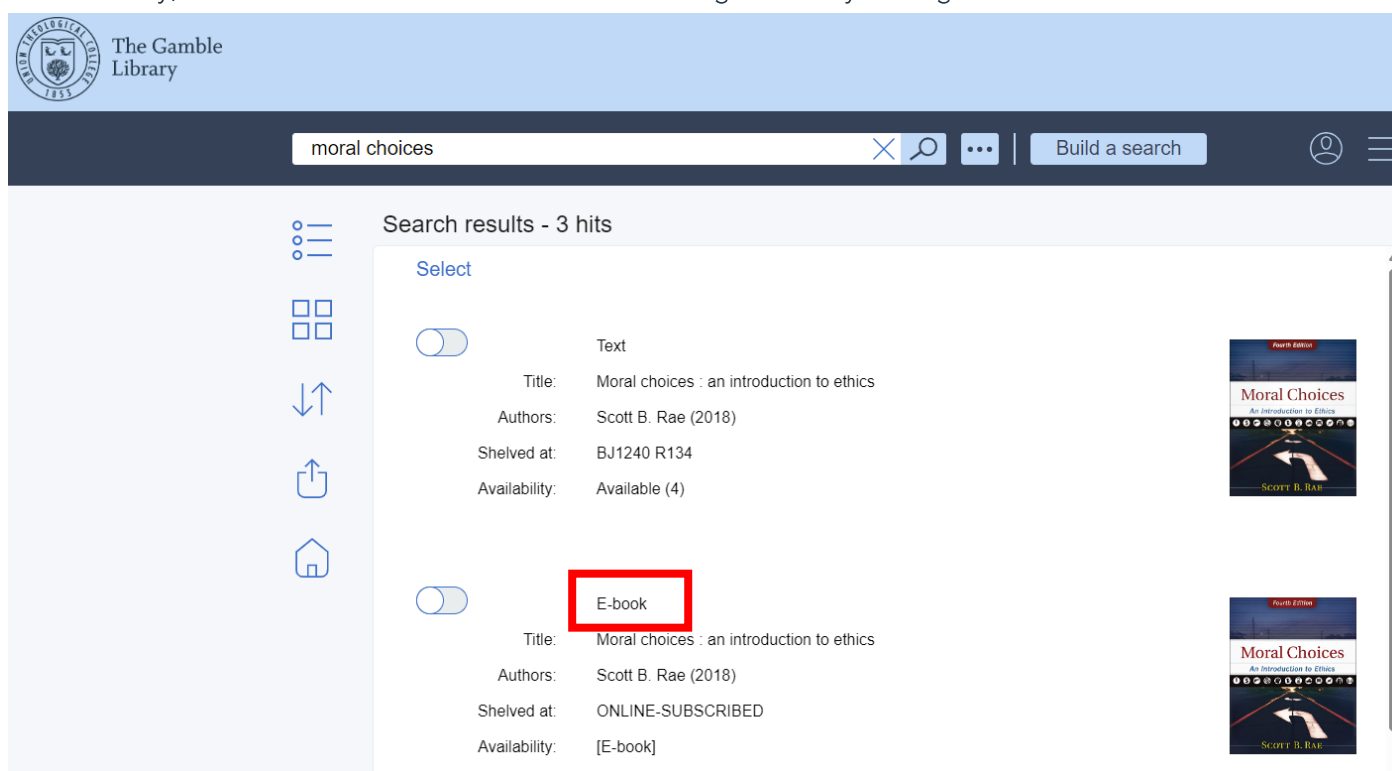

The screenshot shows the EBSCOhost search results page for 'Reformed Ethics: Volume 1 : Created, Fallen, and Converted Humanity'. The page includes the Union Theological College logo, a search bar, and a sidebar with 'My dashboard' options. The main content area displays the book title, publication information, and the 'Access now (eBook)' button, which is highlighted with a red box. The 'Download' button is also visible.

Click 'Access now (eBook)' and the e-book will open.

Similarly, e-book titles can also be seen while searching our library catalogue:

Click on the e-book's title to go into its detailed record. Next click 'Read me' or the URL in the citation to open the e-book's detailed record. Make sure you are logged into Atla in another tab:

If any hyperlinks on the VLE or online catalogue do not work please let library staff know so they can fix them.

There are many useful features within an e-book.

The contents are on the right: just click on a chapter title to go to that chapter:

The icons at the bottom and top of the e-book are very useful.

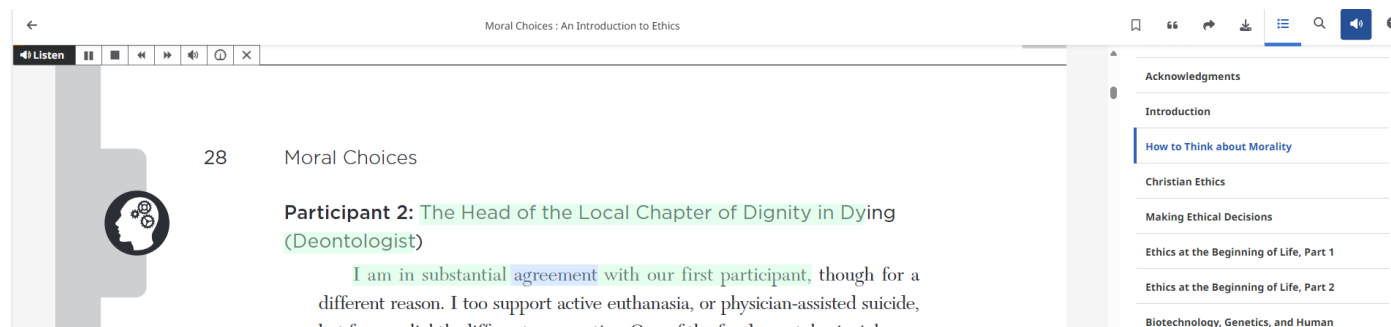

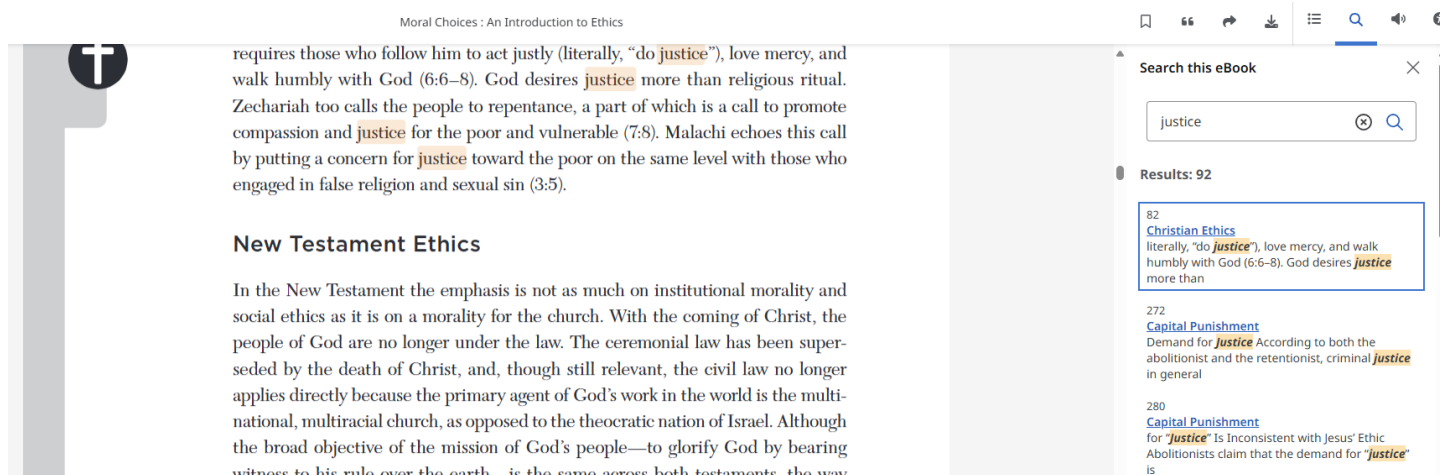

This allows you to listen to the text being read. It highlights the text as it is read aloud.

Use the buttons to: Start listening. Play/pause. Stop. Skip backwards/forwards 5 seconds. Adjust volume. Adjust reading speed. Exit the audio.

This allows you to search within the text of the e-book for keywords. Click on the page where it is mentioned on the right to go straight to the reference.

Clicking this allows you to see the table of contents again. Click this icon again, or the x in the top right of the table of contents to make it disappear so you see only the text of the book.

Once signed in you can also download the whole e-book by clicking this icon. You also need to have Adobe Digital Editions installed on your computer or device. Reading e-books online is recommended rather than downloading them.

Some e-books permit the downloading of individual chapters – you will see this symbol beside individual chapter headings if this is the case. They usually download as PDFs which you can save, print etc.

When you are logged into MyEBSCO you can see what you have saved, searched for, and viewed previously in the 'My dashboard' area.

You can download chapters and extracts from most e-books. In the downloaded PDF you can make your own notes and highlights. You can also use the 'Read aloud' feature and save your highlighted version of the chapter for later use.

Table of contents. Highlighting. Drawing tool. Eraser. Typing tool. Read aloud. Translation tool. Ask AI.

Make text smaller or larger. Fit to the page width. Skip to a page by typing in a number. Rotate page. Have two pages side by side.

Search within the PDF. Print. Save the PDF. Save the annotated version. Make full screen (ESC to exit). The cog gives the option to hide all annotations and view the document properties.

Make sure you 'Sign out of MyEBSCO' and close down the webpage when you have finished.

Please note there are limits on:

- The number of users who can simultaneously use each e-book
- The amount of the e-book you can print, save, email, copy and paste.
