You can also access EEBO using the PDF Gamble Guide listing all electronic resources which is emailed out by the Librarian.

Once you click on the 'EEBO' icon you will be prompted to enter your Union Theological College email address and password. You will then be redirected to the EEBO landing page.

EEBO features page images of almost every work printed in the British Isles and North America, as well as works in English printed elsewhere from 1470-1700. This includes books and historical periodicals. New content is added to EEBO once a year. Transcriptions of texts are also included and several editions of some works. Subjects covered include: Religion, English literature, History, Philosophy, Linguistics, and Politics.

Basic search

To search, just enter keywords in the search box on the landing page and click the magnifying glass to search:

Please note EEBO ignores stop words like or, the, in. If you enter several words, EEBO searches for all of these in your results. It is possible to use AND OR NOT between your terms.

It is better to use the advanced search to get more accurate results.

Advanced search

Click the 'Advanced Search' tab to bring up an advanced search, or click the three lines in the top left to reveal the advanced search option:

The advanced search allows you to search for keywords in various parts of items' records. A list of searchable fields may be viewed here. You can also search for spelling variants for your search terms. For example:

Make sure this button is selected to search for spelling variants of your search term. Before English was standardized, there were a variety of ways to spell words. Selecting the button below it returns US/UK spelling variants. Form variants are different forms of the root word, e.g., 'lead' with the form variants button selected searches for leads/leader/leadership/leading etc. Search variants are displayed along the top of the results page.
