

Now recruiting...

Lecturer in New Testament

Three Year Fixed-Term

Union Theological College

Salary E2 – (£35,109 - £42,234 per annum) – under review

Hours Full-Time (Minimum of 37.5 hours per week)

The post holder will contribute to the mission and vision of Union Theological College by providing high-quality teaching, as well as academic and pastoral support for students, and thereby to participate in the Christian ministry and mission of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland

Essential Criteria:

- A PhD in New Testament from a recognised university or academic institution
- The ability to teach New Testament Greek
- Willingness to obtain a Postgraduate Certificate in Higher Education
- 2 years' experience of leadership in a Christian congregation or para-church
- Previous experience of teaching New Testament and Greek in an academic or educational environment
- Proven administrative competence i.e., organisational skills, report writing, etc.
- Appropriate IT skills and experience
- A personal Christian faith, normally demonstrated by active membership of a Christian congregation (the essential nature of this post requires that the successful candidate be a Christian as provided for under excepted occupations in the Fair Employment Treatment (NI) Order 1998)
- Must evidence an understanding of, and commitment to, working within the Christian ethos and doctrinal framework of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland
- Respectful of the diversity of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, including theological diversity
- Willing to be flexible in working arrangements and hours to suit the needs of the post

Information about the College may be viewed at www.union.ac.uk

To apply or for further information click the link or scan the QR code:

<https://seemehired.com/jobs/presbyterian-church-in-ireland/57661>

The job closes at 4pm on Tuesday 17 March 2026

Please note this post may close earlier if there are sufficient applications