

Theology resources on the web

Gamble Guides

Below are some selected online resources which every theology student should know about. Any with a * beside them are highly recommended.

(Union Theological College does not take responsibility for the content of the websites mentioned below).

Theology only resources

There are numerous websites that offer access to theology resources, such as journal articles and eBooks, which could help you with your studies.

ATLA Websites on Religion LibGuide is a growing, annotated collection of web resources for the study of religion. <https://atla.libguides.com/WOR>

Bible Gateway provides searchable online Bibles in over 100 versions. <https://www.biblegateway.com/>

Bible Study Tools provides some older commentaries and other resources. <http://www.biblestudytools.com/>

British Religion in Numbers is an online religious data resource which provides various statistics related to religion. <http://www.brin.ac.uk/>

Center for Reformed Theology and Apologetics contains various confessions, creeds, catechisms and other documents. <http://www.reformed.org/documents/>

Christian Classics Ethereal Library provides access to thousands of items of Christian classic literature (mostly eBooks). <http://www.ccel.org/>

Desiring God. Free eBooks by John Piper and others: <http://www.desiringgod.org/books> Many articles, sermons etc. also available at: <http://www.desiringgod.org/>

Frame-Poythress.org allows individuals to access eBooks by John Frame and Vern Poythress free of charge for personal use only. <https://frame-poythress.org/ebooks/>

GlobeTheoLib supplies access to articles, journals, books, ecumenical documents and other resources. You need to register and login to get access to some, but you can register for free. <https://www.globethics.net/library>

Greek-English Lexicon (Liddell, Scott)

<http://www.perseus.tufts.edu/hopper/text?doc=Perseus:text:1999.04.0057>

Interfaith provides access to the New Testament Apocrypha, Christian Encyclopaedia and early Christian writings. <https://www.interfaith.org/christianity/early-writings/>

Internet Sacred Text Archive contains electronic texts on religion, mythology, and folklore. <http://www.sacred-texts.com/index.htm>

Logos Lecture Hall and Word by Word links to a range of topical articles, reviews and other resources. <https://www.logos.com/grow/lecture-hall/>

D. Martin Luthers Werke is available at the following website:

<http://www.lutherdansk.dk/WA/D.%20Martin%20Luthers%20Werke,%20Weimarer%20Ausgabe%20-%20WA.htm>

Monergism is a curated directory of free theological content including eBooks, articles, MP3s and other resources. <https://www.monergism.com/>

N.T. Wright webpage contains articles and extracts from books. <http://ntwrightpage.com/>

Open Access Digital Theological Library (OADTL) contains around 198,000 open access eBooks, thousands of PhD and D.Min. dissertations and several hundred thousand articles in religious studies. <http://oadtl.org/>

Princeton Theological Seminary, Theological Commons is a digital library of over 150,000 resources on theology and religion, consisting of public domain books, periodicals, audio recordings, etc. <https://commons.ptsem.edu/>

Project Wittenberg contains books and documents of Lutheran interest, including works by Luther and other Lutherans. <https://www.projectwittenberg.org>

Religion Online provides access to more than 6,000 articles etc., many peer-reviewed, and books on topics such as Old and New Testament, ethics, pastoral care and missions. <http://www.religion-online.org/>

Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy is available at <http://plato.stanford.edu/>

The Holy See has links to numerous Vatican libraries and archives, including many official documents. <http://w2.vatican.va/content/vatican/en.html>

The Tertullian Project is a collection of ancient and modern material regarding the ancient Christian Latin writer, Tertullian and his writings. <http://www.tertullian.org/>

The Works of Jonathan Edwards Online provides free access to all Yale University Press's volumes of Jonathan Edwards works, plus nearly 50 additional volumes of works from the manuscript collection. <http://edwards.yale.edu/research/browse> Free access to the peer reviewed Jonathan Edwards Studies Journal is also available: <http://edwards.yale.edu/publication/online+journal>

Theology on the Web provides bibliographies and reprints of rare and out-of-print theology books and journals <https://theologyontheweb.org.uk/index.html> Theology on the Web is linked to several other websites, all of which are well worth visiting. They provide eBooks and journal articles as well as other resources:

- Biblical Archaeology website <https://biblicalarchaeology.org.uk/>
- Biblical Studies website <http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/index.html>
- Early Church website <http://www.earlychurch.org.uk/>
- Medieval Church website <http://www.medievalchurch.org.uk/>
- Reformation Church website <https://reformationchurch.org.uk/>
- Theological Studies website <http://www.theologicalstudies.org.uk/index.html>
- Missiology website <http://www.missiology.org.uk/>

Theology journals available free online

Further to the list available on the Theology on the Web website, here are more journals available open access online:

American Journal of Biblical Theology. <http://www.biblicaltheology.com/>

Ars Disputandi. <https://www.tandfonline.com/loi/rjpt17>

Cyberjournal for Pentecostal-Charismatic Research. <http://www.pctii.org/cyberj/>

Denver Journal. Much of the Journal's content reviews recently published books and media relating to the major fields of biblical and theological studies. <http://www.denverseminary.edu/resources/denver-journal/>

Journal of Greco-Roman Christianity and Judaism. <http://jgrchj.net/>

Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society. https://www.etsjets.org/JETS_Online_Archive

McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry. <http://www.mcmaster.ca/mjtm/>

Online: Heidelberg Journal of Religions on the Internet. <https://heiup.uni-heidelberg.de/journals/index.php/religions/index>

Open Library of Humanities. <https://olh.openlibhums.org/issues/>

Reformed Faith and Practice: The Journal of the Reformed Theological Seminary. <https://journal.rts.edu/>

TC: A Journal of Biblical Textual Criticism. <http://jbtc.org/>

Themelios. <https://themelios.thegospelcoalition.org/issues/>

The Southern Baptist Journal of Theology. <http://equip.sbts.edu/category/publications/journals/journal-of-theology/>

Vision: A Journal for Church and Theology. <https://press.palni.org/ojs/index.php/vision>

Google theological journals search. A Google custom search of selected theological journals is available here: <https://cse.google.com/cse?cx=018443097211386924752:luwi5uy2qbe>

Theology and other resources

The following provide access to theology and other, for example, historical, resources which may be useful.

Directory of Open Access Books. This is a very good source of modern eBooks. <https://doabooks.org/>

Directory of Open Access Journals. This is an excellent source of journals such as: The Journal of Religion and Society. <https://doaj.org/>

Core. The world's largest collection of open access research papers. <https://core.ac.uk/>

Europeana contains over 57,000,000 books, videos etc. from across Europe. <https://www.europeana.eu/en>

Google Scholar can help you find relevant scholarly articles, theses, books etc. Use the advanced search. <https://scholar.google.com/>

Open Access Button provides access to articles shared freely by authors <https://openaccessbutton.org/>

Open Access Publishing in European Networks has some very good quality material from well-known publishers. <https://oapen.org/home>

OpenDOAR is an authoritative directory of academic open access repositories. <https://v2.sherpa.ac.uk/opensoar/>

Project Gutenberg is an excellent source for free, mostly older, eBooks and journals. <https://www.gutenberg.org/>

*The Internet Archive. An outstanding source of various, mostly older books, periodicals and other media. <https://archive.org/>

Unpaywall is an open database of almost 33,000,000 free scholarly articles <https://unpaywall.org/>

Theses

The following websites allow you to search for, and sometimes download, theses.

DART-Europe E-theses Portal provides access to the full-text of a large number of theses from over 570 universities in 29 European countries. <https://www.dart-europe.org/basic-search.php>

EBSCO Open Dissertations gives access to the full text of open access dissertations from across the world. <https://biblioboard.com/opendissertations/>

EThOS. This allows users to search over 600,000 doctoral (PhD) theses made available by participating Universities located in the UK and Ireland. Some are available for free download. <https://ethos.bl.uk/Home.do>

OATD (Open Access Theses and Dissertations) is an international database giving free access to over 6 million theses and dissertations. <https://oatd.org/>

Theses Canada Portal provides an index of all theses produced at Canadian universities and free PDFs of those produced after 1998.

<https://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/services/theses/Pages/theses-canada.aspx>